Teachers description

Rodolfo Cares

Dear Students,

My name is Rodolfo Cares. I became an English Teacher back in my country and worked there for a number of years teaching English in high schools and other English colleges.

I obtained a Post Diploma in teaching English to adults in Sydney in 1992 and since then I have been teaching English to adult migrants to Australia and lately to international students like you from different countries. I look forward to meeting you and learn with you more about your country, culture and your ambitions in coming to Australia and hope I am able to give you a wonderful English learning experience as well as a sound knowledge about the culture of living in Australia.

Hello students,

Welcome to Salisbury College Australia (SCA).

I have been teaching English to migrants and overseas students on and off for about thirty years. I really enjoy teaching and meeting new people from around the world. I also love traveling to new destinations, interacting with the local people and experiencing new cultures. Learning English will definitely open up a new world for you and allow you to experience new and exciting opportunities. I wish you all the very best of luck in your studies here at SCA and hope you have a memorable learning experience.

Thank you and enjoy your time here.

Susan Terravecchia

Hello students,

Welcome to SCA. I am originally from New Hampshire (USA), but I have lived in Australia since 1997.

My teaching experience spans over three decades and five continents, and I truly enjoy every day in the classroom. I have a BA in Languages and Education from the University of New Hampshire and a MA of International Students from UTS (Sydney). In addition to teaching, I have worked as an interpreter at the Sydney 2000 Olympics, a cook at a Hawaiian resort, a basketball coach and a mentor. I enjoy travelling, trying new foods, spending time with my family and walking my dog.

I look forward to seeing you soon in my classroom.

Sincerely

Chris Harris

Dear Students,

Put simply, I still love teaching English after 22 years of being a teacher.

I have a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Sydney and a CELTA Teaching Certificate. I have worked at several colleges in that time and I sincerely believe Salisbury College has been the best one. The teachers are all very dedicated and the staff are wonderful. You've made the right choice! My personal motto for students is simple: Have fun learning English and don't think too much!

Regards
