PAYMENT OF GOODS AND SERVICES TAX (GST)

GST is exempt under section 38-85 GSTR 2003/1 Goods and Services Tax, tax ruling. The ruling explains the supply of a course for 'professional or trade course' is a GST-free education course.

Where a student is enrolled in a course which is offering units of competence or a whole qualification, the course fees attached to this enrolment will be exempt from the payment of GST. GST does apply on the payment of some miscellaneous charges where these charges are in addition to and outside the normal services offered in a course. These are outlined in the Salisbury College Australia Schedule of Fees and Charges.

CURRENCY

All fees are listed and payable in Australian dollars. Salisbury College Australia will not be responsible for any loss during currency conversion and will refund the amount received in Australian dollar minus any other applicable fees as outlined in the Written Student Agreement.

MISCELLANEOUS CHARGES

Salisbury College Australia will levy some miscellaneous charges for services. These may include:

- Re-issuing a certificate after it has been initially issued to a student.
- Replacing issued learning materials which the student has lost or damaged
- Re-assessment services

These miscellaneous charges are to be clearly specified in Salisbury College Australia Schedule of Fees and Charges. It is to be made clear if these services will include GST. All miscellaneous charges are based on a cost recovery basis and are not intended to be a source of profit.

THE TUITION PROTECTION SERVICE

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) is an initiative of the Australian Government to assist international students whose education providers are unable to fully deliver their course of study. The TPS ensures that international students are able to either:

- complete their studies in another course or with another education provider or
- receive a refund of their unspent tuition fees.

PROVIDER DEFAULT

In the unlikely event Salisbury College Australia is unable to deliver a course where fees have been paid in advance and it does not meet its obligations to either offer the student an alternative course that is accepted or pay the student a refund of the unspent prepaid tuition fees, the TPS will assist the student in finding an alternative course or offer a refund if a suitable alternative is not found.

In the case of provider default there is no requirement for a student to lodge a Refund Request Form.

In Australia there are also very strong protections for student's fees, which you can learn more about on the fact sheet provided by Australian Government – Department of Education and Training (click here to access the fact sheet)

For further information on Tuition Protection Scheme (TPS) scheme, please read the student information contained in TPS website <https://tps.gov.au/StaticContent/Get/StudentInformation>

FEES BEING PAID IN ADVANCE

Salisbury College Australia acknowledges that it has a responsibility to protect the fees paid by students in advance of their training and assessment services being delivered. To meet its responsibilities under the ESOS Act, Salisbury College Australia requests payment of no more than 50% of the total tuition fees for the course before the student commences the course. It is acknowledged that students may choose to pay more than 50% in advance up to 100% of all fees due. Following course commencement, no further pre-paid tuition fees are taken before the beginning of the second study period.

Salisbury College Australia maintains a separate bank account in order to keep pre-paid tuition fees separate from day-to-day operating expense accounts. If a refund is payable before the student commences, the refund can be made in full and in a timely way without impact on the financial operations of the business or recourse to the Tuition Protection Service.

KEEPING STUDENTS INFORMED

To ensure that students are well informed of the financial considerations of their enrolment, Salisbury College Australia undertakes to provide the following fee information to each student prior to enrolment:

- the total amount of all fees including tuition fees, enrolment application fees, materials fees and any other charges;
- payment terms, including the timing and amount of fees to be paid and any non-refundable deposit/enrolment application fee;
- the nature of the guarantee given by Salisbury College Australia to complete the training and/or assessment once the student has commenced study in their chosen qualification or course;
- the fees and charges for additional services, including such items as issuance of a replacement qualification testamur and the options available to students who are deemed 'not competent' on completion of training and assessment;
- the amounts that may or may not be repaid to the student (including any tuition and non-tuition fees collected by education agents on behalf of the registered provider) and
- the Salisbury College Australia refund policy.

STUDENT COMPLAINTS ABOUT FEES OR REFUNDS

Students who are unhappy with the Salisbury College Australia arrangements for the collection and refunding of tuition fees are entitled to lodge a complaint or appeal the decision taken by the Principal Executive Officer. This should occur in accordance with the Salisbury College Australia Complaints and Appeals Policy and procedure.

This refund policy, and the availability of our complaints and appeals processes, does not remove student rights to take further action under the Australian Consumer Protection laws where Australian Consumer Protection laws apply.
